13 May 1968

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Briefing of Presidential Candidates

1. At lunch on 7 May, the President asked if any of the Presidential aspirants had requested intelligence briefings. The answer was negative. Thereupon the President made it clear that if any requests are received, the only individuals to be involved in such briefings are Secretary Rusk, Secretary Clifford, and the undersigned.

2. I pass the foregoing to you in writing in the event that some question in connection with this matter might arise when I was not present. I did not want there to be any misunderstanding.
